

SCRAPPLE

Wit and Wisdom of a Busy World

CARTOONS

THE GENTLEMAN TAKING THE NEXT SEAT IN THE ONE-ARM RESTAURANT BRUSHES HIS COAT OVER THE TERRIBLE TEMPERED MR. BANG'S LUNCH

By FONTAINE FOX

(Copyright.)

Stick to It

If you've a job that's hard to do, just stick and stick and see it through. It always is the final push that turns a trick and gets the "ouch."

THE PADDED CELL

Camouflage

The Late Comer—recognizing the sentry as a pal; Good Lor, Tom, you did fair frighten me. I thought at first you was a bloomin' soldier!

War Training She belligerently—Why weren't you at the station with the car to meet me as usual? He meekly—My dear, you ought to get into this habit of some meet-less days.—Baltimore American.

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says she sees by the paper that Russia is now republican and she supposes the democrats are a good deal disappointed.

Indisputable Authority

The young husband laid down his piece of cake and regarded his wife across the table. "Dearie," he began, diplomatically, "I suggest that there is something wrong with this cake. It really doesn't taste very good."

SCHOOL DAYS

By DWIG

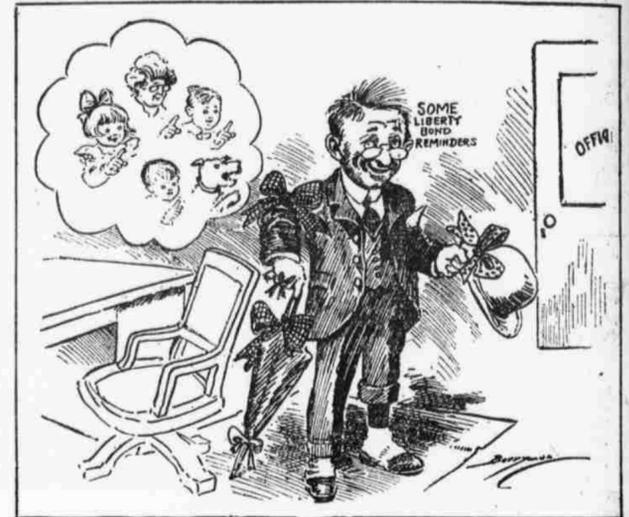

Lindsay, in Sydney (Australia) Bulletin. "WAAL, BOYS, GUESS THERE'S ROOM FOR ME IN HERE SOMEWHERE!"

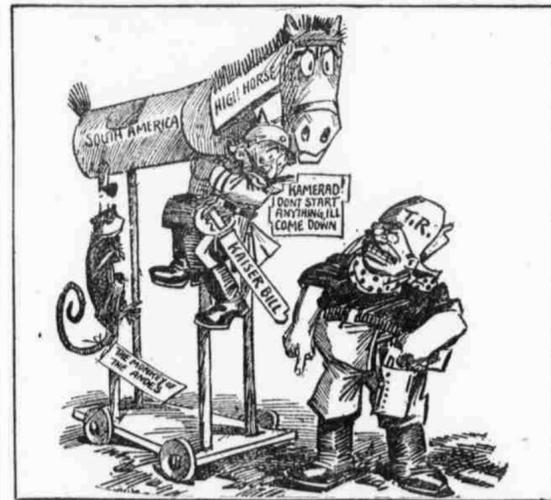

Rogers, in New York Herald. "ACH GOTT! HIGH MIGHTINESS, WE CANNOT WIN"

Aves, in Passing Show, London, England. HE WHO DANCES TO THE PIPES OF PAN IS DOOMED

Berryman, in Washington (D. C.) Evening Star. LEST DAD FORGET THAT LIBERTY BOND

North, in Tacoma (Washington) Ledger. AND THIS WAS IN 1902

Tom May, in Detroit Journal. INSURE YOUR FAMILY BY BUYING LIBERTY BONDS

Lunt, in London (England) Bystander. Uncle Sam: "You'd stand no nonsense from America, eh? Well, I guess you'll find there's no nonsense about this h'yar h'ope!"

Advertisement for Fire and Accident Losses in the United States for 1917, estimated at $1,162,500,000. Includes Uncle Sam illustration and text about Liberty Bonds.